

S P E A K E R B I O
- STEVEN KRAMER -

Feldman, Kramer and Monaco, P.C.

Steven Kramer graduated from North Adams State College in 1994, receiving his Bachelor degree in Biology. He went on to receive his Juris Doctorate from St. John's University School of Law in 1997. He was admitted to the New York State Bar in 1998 and to the New York Federal Courts, Southern and Eastern Districts. Mr. Kramer's areas of concentration include trust and estates and elder law.

Mr. Kramer has lectured to the New York State Bar Association, Practicing Law Institute, Account's Resource Group, New York State United Teachers Union, United Federation of Teachers, Public Employees Federation, Nassau County Correction Officers, Suffolk County Deputy Sheriffs Association, the Preferred Provider Group, Prepaid Legal and Legal Shield, Nassau Community College, Civil Service Employees Association, Association of Municipal Employees, DC-37, Long Island Family Caregiver Coalition, Financial Planning Association, and American Prepaid Legal Services Institute. Mr. Kramer is also accredited and frequently lectures to provide Continuing Education credits for New York Social Workers, nurses, and case managers.

Mr. Kramer is the founder of the Estate Wellness Forum and the Medicaid Coordinator Round Table, and is a Long Island Family Caregiver Coalition board member. He is a former trustee of North Adams State College. He is a Member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys and was named a Power Lawyer by Schneps Media. He was featured on the NPR radio program "What's Up Doc."

FELDMAN | KRAMER | MONACO

ATTORNEYS