

S P E A K E R B I O
- GORDON OLIVER -
Cambridge Credit Counseling Corp.

Gordon Oliver is the Director of Business Development for Cambridge Credit Counseling Corp. Prior to, Gordon held the position of Student Loan Counseling Manager and received his credit counselor certification through the Partnership for Financial Education. In his capacity as Student Loan Counseling Manager, Gordon managed all aspects of the departments, including training, process development, documentation, staff supervision, the coordination of resources, and the overall quality of services. Gordon has more than fifteen years experience counseling consumers with credit and debt issues. He formerly served as Cambridge's Senior Credit Counseling and Operations Manager, overseeing all areas of counselor training, education, compliance and performance, and was also a member of Cambridge's Senior Management team. Gordon has also served as a spokesperson for the organization, representing Cambridge at trade association conferences, in strategic relationships with other community groups, and as a seminar leader for educational outreach initiatives.

